In re: Buckeye Political Action Committee
Identification Number: C00356378
Year End Report (11/23/04-12/31/04)

Dear Ms. Jaketic

Pursuant to your request for a clarification to the Schedule B, Line 23 candidate contribution wherein you note that:

contributions may not be designated for an election which has already occurred. . . .

Through inattention on my part, the contribution to DeWine for U. S. Senate on December 24, 2004, was designated for the 2004 General Election. The designation should have been noted for the 2006 Primary Election. Senator Michael DeWine (Ohio) was not a candidate for election in 2004 and his principal campaign committee, DeWine for U.S. Senate, solicited the contribution for the 2006 Primary Election; therefore, the contribution was properly made, but through inadvertent clerical error was carelessly designated.

An Amended Report of the Buckeye Political Action Committee Year End Report was filed and accepted (FEC Filing ID FEC-167658) on March 16, 2005, correcting this clerical error.

Yours very truly,

William L. Curlis
Treasurer
